From the Amsterdam Gazette, &c. dated August 20.

Rome, July 31.

Several Congregations of State have been held this Week, upon the Condition of Affairs in the Ferrareze. And besides the Letters of Complaint that are come from that Province, Deputies from the Cities of Ferrara and Bologna have attended the Pope to represent to him the great Damage the Country suffers by the march of the forreign Troops: Whereupon Couriers have been dispatch'd with his Holiness's Orders. The 15th of this Month Cardinal Grimani sent a Courier to Vienna, with Letters from the Pope earnestly recommending the Prince of Lorrain Bishop of Osnabrug to the Chapter of the Cathedral of Munster, to elect him for their Bishop. To Day Cardinal Pallavicino having resign'd the Office of Governour of this City, Signior Caffarelli one of the Auditors of the Rota took possession of it with the usual Ceremonies. He is a Person of great Reputation for Love of Justice and good Order, so that the Citizens are extremely pleas'd with the Pope's conferring this Office upon him.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated August 17.

Warsaw, Aug. 1. King Augustus is on the march with his Army from Grodno; whence 'tis advis'd that an Express was arriv'd the e, being sent by his Majesty to Prince Wielnowiski General of Lithuania, to give him Notice of his march. His Majesty had receiv'd Advice by an Express, that the Czar of Muscovy was at Smolensko, and that his Army which had Orders to joyn that of Poland was arriv'd in the Neighbourhood of Minsk in Lithuania. 'Tis said, that the King of Sweden having Intelligence of these Motions, is preparing to march with his Horse to endeavour to oppose the Junction of King Augustus with the Muscovites. King Stanislaus is arriv'd at Lublin, to preside in the Diet of that Palatinate, and encourage the Nobility to declare for him, as those of the Province of Volhinia have done. Collonel Ribinski, whom King Augustus has left to command in Cracow, makes the necessary Dispositions for a vigorous Defence; having put the Fortifications of the Castle into good Order, and furnish'd it with sufficient Stores of Ammunition and Provisions. He has demanded 36000 Florins of the City, for paying his Garrison; but the Inhabitants have been so drain'd by former Contributions that 'tis extremely hard for them to levy this.

From the Leiden Gazette, &c. dated August 17.

Danzick, Aug. 4. King Augustus is arriv'd with his Army on the Frontier of Lithuania, to joyn the Army of that great Dutchy and a Reinforcement of 20000 Men sent him by the Czar of Muscovy. After which Junction he will have an Army of 40000 Men. His Czarish Majesty has lately sent him large Remittances of Money, and 'tis talk'd is drawing together another considerable Body of Troops at Kiovia, with Design to joyn his Polish Majesty with them in Person. The King of Sweden and King Stanislaus, are at length return'd out of Volhinia to Lublin, (whither they follow'd the Muscovites that retir'd some time since from Grodno in Lithuania through Volhinia to their own Country,) after having made the Nobility of that Province declare for King Stanislaus; and have summon'd a Diet of the Nobility of the Palatinate of Lublin to do the like.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated August 17.

Hambourg, August 13. We have Advice from the Camp of King Augustus of Poland that his Majesty's Army having happily pass'd the Vistula, the Bug, and the Naieu, encamp'd at Siedaz; where they continued the 28th of July; and that his Horse had loyn'd the Army of the Crown. Letters from Lublin of the 1st of this Month, say the King of Sweden and King Stanislaus went from thence a few Days before, accompanied by Prince Alexander Sobieski, taking their march towards the Vistula, over which River they have caus'd a Bridge to be laid near Palow: Count Zinzendorff the Emperor's Envoy extraordinary to the King of Sweden, was arriv'd at Lublin, but had not had Audience of his Majesty.

From the Lieden Gazette, dated August 17.

Letters from Cracow of the 4th of August, advise, that Prince Lubomirski Surost of Spiski appearing lately before the Castle of Lubocona, desir'd the Officer who commanded in it for King Augustus, to admit him to take possession of it, as belonging to him; or at least to deliver to him his Tents, Arms, and Field-Equipage, which he had left there some time before, that he might go and serve in the Army of King Augustus. The Officer refus'd to yield up the Place to him without an express Order from his Polish Majesty, but sent him his Arms and Equipage. Presently after, the Starost declar'd against King Augustus, and laying Siege to the Castle with his Troops, took it in 3 Days time, and caus'd the Garrison to be put to the Sword. It was apprehended at Cracow that General Reinschild with the Body of Swedes he commands would make them a Visit; but these Letters say he march'd from Petrikovia the 30th of July towards Lublin, to joyn the Army of the King his Master.
